1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No 2 of 2000 (“the Act”) was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the State and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may or must not be released. The Act sets out the requisite procedural issues attached to such request.

1.2 PURPOSE OF THE MANUAL:

In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in terms of the Act in order for them to exercise their rights in relation to public and private bodies.

Section 9 of the Act however recognises that such right to access to information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

- Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- Commercial confidentiality; and
- Effective, efficient and good governance;

and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

Wherever reference is made to “Private Body” in this manual, it will refer to RECM Collective Investments (Pty) Ltd, the registered manager of the RECM Collective Investment Scheme.

Wherever reference is made to a “document” or “record”, it shall include such documents or records that are stored on a computer or in any form of electronic format (precedent included).

PART IV

5. ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY THE PRIVATE BODY

5.1 Records held by the Private Body may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.

5.2 A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of the Private Body. There are two types of requesters:

5.2.1 PERSONAL REQUESTER

5.2.1.1 A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester.

5.2.1.2 The Private Body will voluntarily provide the requested information, or give access to any record with regard to the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.

5.2.2 OTHER REQUESTER

5.2.2.1 This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties. However, the Private Body is not obliged to voluntarily grant access. The requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements for access in terms of the Act, including the payment of a request and access fee.

6. REQUEST PROCEDURE

6.1 The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in the Act relating to the request for access to a record.

6.2 The requester must complete the prescribed form enclosed herewith in Appendix 1, and submit same as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit, if applicable to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, fax number or electronic mail address as stated in 2.1 or 2.2 above.

6.3 The prescribed form must be filled in with enough particularity to at least enable the Information Officer to identify –

6.3.1 The record or records requested;

6.3.2 The identity of the requester,

6.3.3 Which form of access is required, if the request is granted;

6.3.4 The postal address or fax number of the requester.

6.4 The requester must state that he/she requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right is so to be exercised or protected. In addition, the requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right.

- 6.5 The Private Body will process the request within 30 days, unless the requester has stated special reasons which would satisfy the Information officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods not be complied with.
- 6.6 The requester shall be informed whether access granted or denied. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, he/she must state the manner and the particulars so required.
- 6.7 If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the information officer.
- 6.8 If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.
- 6.9 The requester must pay the prescribed fee, before any further processing can take place.

7 GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

The main grounds for the Private Body to refuse a request for information relates to the -

- 7.1 mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person;
- 7.2 mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains –
- 7.2.1 trade secrets of that third party;
- 7.2.2 financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
- 7.2.3 information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Private Body, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- 7.3 mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
- 7.4 mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
- 7.5 mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- 7.6 the commercial activities of the Private Body, which may include –
- 7.6.1 trade secrets of the Private Body;
- 7.6.2 financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure of could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the Private Body;
- 7.6.3 information which, if disclosed could put the Private Body at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- 7.6.4 a computer program which is owned by the Private Body, and which is protected by copyright.

7.7 the research information of the Private Body or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of the Private Body, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage;

7.8 Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

8 REMEDIES AVAILABLE WHEN A PRIVATE BODY REFUSES A REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

8.1 INTERNAL REMEDIES

The Private Body does not have an internal appeal procedure. As such, the decision made by the information officer is final, and requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the requester is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the information officer.

8.2 EXTERNAL REMEDIES

A requester that is dissatisfied with an information officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to a relevant Court for relief.

Likewise, a third party dissatisfied with an information officer's decision to grant a request for information, may within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief. For purposes of the Act, the Courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status.

9 FEES

9.1 The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

9.1.1 A request fee, which will be a standard fee; and

9.1.2 An access fee, which must be calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs.

9.2 When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee (if any), before any further processing of the request.

9.3 If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the information officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the Access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

9.4 The information officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated in Appendix 2.

9.5 A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.

9.6 If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the information officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

10 DECISION

10.1 The Private Body will, within 30 days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect.

10.2 The 30 day period with which the Private Body has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than thirty days if the request is for a large amount of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of the Private Body and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 day period. The Private Body will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

11 AVAILABILITY OF THE MANUAL

11.1 A copy of this manual is available at the offices of the Private Body or through the South African Human Rights Commission.
