INVESTMENT COMMENT

Sun International has been a top holding in the Fund for some time. The investment case is based primarily on margins going back to more normal levels through a recovery in the hotel cycle and trimming of excess fat in the business by new management. The business possesses barriers to entry in the form of casino licenses in a highly regulated industry and although Sun City is likely to continue to be a drag on returns on capital, there have been a few positive developments within the group recently. These include Sun International selling a 40% stake in GrandWest and Worcester casinos to Tsogo in a deal worth almost R2,2bn reducing the probability of a competing casino in the area, changes to the border between Mpumalanga and Gauteng allowing Sun International to move its licence from the Morula Sun to Menlyn Park, Pretoria (a very lucrative largely untapped casino market), and the sale of most of its African hotel operations to Minor International (MINT) at a reasonable price, with a resulting improvement in the quality of earnings going forwards. Despite the share rising on the back of this news, the stock still represents good value at these levels.

INVESTMENT COMMENT

The Fund holds a significant position in energy company BP. The market is placing a discount on BP due to company specific issues. Finding new barrels of oil has become increasingly expensive and Return on Capital (ROC) has been under pressure recently. The company's exposure to Russia via their 19.8% stake in Rosneft (the country's largest oil producer), as well as the extent of claims arising from the Deepwater Horizon oil spill, still continue to weigh on the price. A federal judge in New Orleans recently ruled that BP's "gross negligence" and "wilful misconduct" had caused the massive oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico in 2010. The stock is priced so low that even factoring in the worst case scenario of $17bn in additional damages, or a write-off of their stake in Rosneft, it still trades at a discount to our estimate of fair value. Recently reserve replacement has been high; production is expected to grow next year while dividends are returning to normal. BP is a high quality business which is trading at a compelling price to earnings ratio of 6. As such, we retain a position in the stock, while enjoying a dividend yield of around 4.9%.

RECM GLOBAL FUND (Class B)

Period ended 30 September 2014

RECM

The RECM Global Fund is a US dollar denominated global fund that may invest in a wide array of assets without any restrictions. The Fund's aim is to generate returns significantly greater than US inflation and commensurate with equities over the long term. The Fund invests mainly in large global companies at a significant discount to intrinsic value, while using the flexibility of the mandate to protect capital and enhance returns by investing in other mispriced global assets from time to time. We consider risk as the possibility of losing money, not in terms of volatility. Our main risk management tool is our investment philosophy. As value investors, we aim to buy and hold good quality companies and do so with a margin of safety. Our ability to move between asset classes assists in reducing the risk in the fund. The Offering Memorandum is available at www.recm.co.za.

INVESTMENT COMMENT

The Fund holds a significant position in energy company BP. The market is placing a discount on BP due to company specific issues. Finding new barrels of oil has become increasingly expensive and Return on Capital (ROC) has been under pressure recently. The company's exposure to Russia via their 19.8% stake in Rosneft (the country's largest oil producer), as well as the extent of claims arising from the Deepwater Horizon oil spill, still continue to weigh on the price. A federal judge in New Orleans recently ruled that BP's "gross negligence" and "wilful misconduct" had caused the massive oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico in 2010. The stock is priced so low that even factoring in the worst case scenario of $17bn in additional damages, or a write-off of their stake in Rosneft, it still trades at a discount to our estimate of fair value. Recently reserve replacement has been high; production is expected to grow next year while dividends are returning to normal. BP is a high quality business which is trading at a compelling price to earnings ratio of 6. As such, we retain a position in the stock, while enjoying a dividend yield of around 4.9%.
